

Harper Grey LLP

Effective March 1st, 2005 Harper Grey Easton has registered as a limited liability partnership (LLP) as permitted by the recent amendments to the Partnership Act and has changed its name to Harper Grey LLP.

In an LLP each partner remains personally liable for his or her own acts or omissions and the firm continues to be liable for the negligent acts or omissions of its partners and employees. Accordingly, there is no reduction or limitation on the liability of the firm.

An individual partner in an LLP is not personally responsible for the negligent acts or omissions of another partner or an employee of the LLP unless he or she knew of the negligent act or omission and did not take reasonable steps to prevent it.

This change will not affect the firm's services to or relationship with its clients. Our Managing Partner, John Brown, would be pleased to address any questions you might have with regard to our new LLP status. We would also be pleased to advise you on how an LLP might benefit your own business.
