

Business Law

Harper Grey has a core group of senior lawyers focused on offering their clients corporate legal advice. We provide legal services for individuals, corporations and other business entities dealing with matters that arise from operating a business, such as acquisitions, sales, financing, leasing, employment issues and other contractual affairs.

In addition, several members of the Business Law group are experienced in the area of wills, estates and estate planning. This group works with individuals and families who own businesses to design solutions for estate planning issues.

John Brown chairs the business law group at Harper Grey. Please contact him at 604.895.2803 or via email at jbrown@harpergrey.com.

Areas of focus:

- Sale, merger and acquisition of businesses
- Incorporations and corporate re-organizations
- Personal property transactions and financing transactions
- Real property transactions and real property financing
- Leasing
- Wills and estate planning
- Succession planning for family owned businesses
