EXPERTISE

Insurance Law

Upon obtaining her Paralegal Certificate from Capilano University in 1988, Janice focused on insurance litigation with an emphasis on personal injury claims from the perspective of both the Plaintiff and Defendant.

In her current role as a paralegal with the Harper Grey Insurance Group, Janice provides support in areas that include bodily injury defence, property damage and casualty claims, product liability, occupiers' liability, and subrogated claims. She works closely with the lawyers in the Group and provides assistance in all aspects of file management including gathering and summarizing evidence, analyzing issues, drafting pleadings and court applications, preparing quantum opinions and legal research.

Janice is a member of the BC Paralegal Association.
