KELSEY ROSE JOINS AME BC LAND ACCESS AND USE COMMITTEE BOARD

May 17, 2017

Harper Grey associate, Kelsey Rose, has joined the Association of Mineral Exploration British Columbia (AME BC) Land Access and Use Committee as a board member.

The Land Access and Use Committee facilitates AME's advocacy for continued and certain access to land sufficient to maintain a successful and sustainable coal and mineral exploration and development industry in BC. The Committee's work includes tracking and reviewing land use, access and planning initiatives and challenges and preparing position papers for the Board as required.
