EXPERTISE

Insurance Law
Construction & Engineering Law

Dina completed her Legal Secretary Certificate in 2003 and worked at a number of firms in that capacity. Dina then completed the two year (full time) Paralegal Diploma Program at Capilano University in 2009. Dina worked as a paralegal at a personal injury firm before joining Harper Grey in 2011 as a legal administrative assistant with our Banking & Insolvency Disputes and Commercial Litigation Group. She brought to her role significant experience gained through working in the areas of personal injury, general and commercial litigation.

Dina is an active member of the BC Paralegal Association.

Her outside of work interests include travelling, ice skating, swimming and enjoying summer visits back home to the Similkameen Valley in the Okanagan.
