We are very pleased to announce that Michael Hewitt, Tricia Milne and their team have joined Harper Grey. The team has worked closely together for many years, and we are thrilled to have their level of litigation talent and experience join our firm.

Michael Hewitt has a broad and diversified practice serving corporate and individual clients in complex commercial and insurance lawsuits, with a particular focus on civil fraud, injunction, conspiracy and conversion litigation. He has been a litigator his entire legal career earning the respect of his peers and establishing a solid reputation as a trial lawyer. Also joining the firm is his colleague, litigation lawyer Tricia Milne. Tricia is a very detail oriented, inquisitive and experienced litigator known for her ability to devise practical solutions to difficult problems.

“Michael and Tricia represent key additions to our litigation ranks”, says Richard Bereti, Managing Partner. “They bring significant and varied practices, and top level litigation talent and experience. The addition of these two strong advocates highlights our longstanding commitment to providing legal services of the highest calibre.”
