JONATHAN MEADOWS ELECTED AS HARPER GREY'S NEXT MANAGING PARTNER

December 7, 2018

Harper Grey is pleased to announce the appointment of Jonathan Meadows as the firm's next managing partner.

Jonathan's strong leadership skills and unwavering dedication to the firm and his clients are essential ingredients to our continued success in providing excellent service and market-leading expertise. His solid management experience together with his well-rounded perspective and judgment will be of great value as Jonathan builds upon our firm's vibrant history and oversees the strategic growth of our firm.

Jonathan will succeed Richard Bereti, who made a significant contribution to the firm since he was appointed in 2012. We are extremely grateful to Richard for his drive, leadership and vision over the past six years. Richard, a leading lawyer in the area of environmental law, will return to his practice full time.

Jonathan was first introduced to the firm in 1995 as a summer student, was called to the British Columbia Bar in 1997 and joined the partnership in 2005. With more than 20 years of experiences, Jonathan has developed a successful and diverse practice and is recognized as a leading lawyer in the areas of Insurance, Professional Liability, Health Care, Medical Negligence, and Construction Law by Best Lawyers® in Canada, Canadian Legal Lexpert Directory® and Benchmark Canada®.

In addition to taking on this new role, Jonathan will continue serving clients in his litigation practice.
