HARPER GREY EXPANDS WORKPLACE LAW GROUP WITH THE ADDITION OF ROSE KEITH

April 1, 2019

Harper Grey is pleased to announce that Rose Keith has joined us as Associate Counsel with our Workplace Law Group.

With over 25 years of experience, Rose brings sound judgment, and a well-rounded perspective to her practice and to our Workplace Law Group.

Her broad civil litigation practice has informed her extensive experience in workplace law matters. Acting for both employers and employees, Rose helps her clients find solutions to wrongful dismissal, constructive dismissal and human rights matters. Her practice includes work place investigations and development of comprehensive work place policies including creation and implementation of bullying and harassment policies and procedures.

Rose is also a Roster member of MediateBC and her deep workplace law experience can be put to use in mediating workplace disputes. As well, her broad general practice experience provides subject matter expertise that can be utilized to resolve disputes in other areas including wills and estates, personal injury and breach of contract.

Rose models the respect, compassion and responsiveness we offer our clients and we are delighted to welcome her to the firm.
