UNA RADOJA RECEIVES BENCHMARK
CANADA® 2019 “FUTURE STAR” RANKING

April 2, 2019

Harper Grey partner, Una Radoja, was recently ranked by Benchmark Canada® 2019 as a Future Star. She was acknowledged by one of her peers for her “very broad depth of environmental and contract law”, while a client confirmed that she is “an extraordinary lawyer. She keeps us up to date, provides excellent and pragmatic advice, and knows us and our legal issues. She also has incredible judgment and memory.”

Una’s practice focuses on two key areas: general commercial litigation and contaminated sites litigation and risk management. She is the co-chair of our Environmental Law group and frequently lectures on various aspects of contaminated site laws. Her client’s range from small businesses and property owners, to developers, strata corporations, insurers, and multi-national, large corporations and REITs.

Congratulations Una!
