GROUP

Harper Grey lawyer, Daniel Reid, presented his paper, Privacy in Family Actions: A Discussion of the “AB” Case and Privacy Issues in Family Actions to the Family Law Advocacy Group Family Law Advocacy Group on Wednesday, May 29, 2019.

The paper discusses a recent case involving a transgendered youth that received significant media attention, and involved efforts by the youth’s father to “publicly advocate” by drawing attention to the youth’s treating medical team. It then turns to discuss how recent Canadian cases have heightened legal protections for privacy, and discusses a number of privacy cases arising out of the family law realm.
