EXPERTISE

Business Law
Wills & Estates

Rose joined Harper Grey in 2020 and brought with her over 13 years of legal experience. Over the course of her career as an LAA she has spent time at various law and professional services firms in Vancouver. After gaining valuable knowledge working in various corporate records departments she stepped into a Corporate and Tax Paralegal role.

In her current capacity, Rose assists our Business Law Group in all aspects of file management and enjoys engaging and supporting clients.

Rose is also an active member of the BC Paralegal Association.

Outside of work, Rose enjoys baking and travelling and spending time with her large extended family.
